Memo

Date: February 8, 2012
To: All Code Enforcement Customers
From: Lon A. McSwain, Building Code Administrator
Re: 2012 Residential Code and 2012 Energy Code

It is the decision of this Department that we will continue to accept and issue permits under the 2009 Energy Code and the 2009 Residential Code until June 1, 2012. This decision was made due to the conflicting adoption dates that have come out of the Building Code Council and the State Legislature. Also, books have not been available during the transition period and training for the industry and code officials has not yet been completed.

Respectfully yours,

Lon McSwain
